

Nazarene Missions Box and Training Update --

By now all of our churches should have received their Nazarene Missions box of materials that was introduced at our convention. If your church has NOT received yours please let us know. Also, the training dates and locations are listed here. It is important that every NMI President and Pastor attend this training. There is no cost but please RSVP Rachel Hubbard by email: hubbardpatrick@hotmail.com

We encourage you to attend the location nearest you, but you may attend whichever one best works with your schedule. We also encourage you to either bring your box with you or bring one of each item in the box.
